"Mader to Basel"

Title: "Mader to Basel"

Ref. number: D-01.20a.I..16

Date: Proper date: 01.05.1868

Description: With subscripts from Müller (senior) and Schrenk discusses what action should be taken over Obuobisa, the catechist who had been absent from Anum since the middle of the previous year. The information relevant to the political situation south of Anum is: 1. That in March and early April he had tried to get to Anum and failed. 2. That when Schönhuth had returned to Anum by the Volta route after Krauss' death, he took with him the long standing Akwapim trading assistant from, and a new catechist, Chr. Asiedu, and a number of Gas also attached themselves to the party. Obuobisa however claimed to have had fever (he was in fact helping Christaller and not in bed) hence Asiedu's being sent - and hence the question of disciplinary action against Obuobisa.
