In July before Zimmermann went on his journey he met Süss in poor circumstances at Dauromadam - quite isolated - his wife apparently abetting him in his ambitions. On his journey down the Volta to Akropong after leaving Agotime Zimmermann visited Süss and found the floods had driven him out of his old house, and he was now in a provisional dwelling, and building a house of baked bricks. His son was born on Oct 22nd. Zimmermann does not say in which house this happened.
