"Stations Conference Protocoll"

Title: "Stations Conference Protocoll"

Ref. number: D-01.30.XIX..242

Date: Proper date: 31.05.1878

Description: Werner has a debt of £46, though at the same time he possesses cattle to the value of £11 (sheep that is). Weimer applies for £17 - both blame the heavy demands on their clothing of the building period, though Eisenschmid adds in a subscript that bachelor housekeeping is always more expensive than on a station where there is a wife to keep things under control. (In Heidenbote 1878 pp75f there is an article by Mrs Werner on the consecration of the church in Abetifi dated 16 Jun 78. The manuscript appears to have been printed as a whole. In Heidenbote there is too an engraving purposing to show the chapel and the mission house - it would appear that the mission-house was completely of its present size at this stage.)
