"Clerk to Basel - Report for the Year 1889"

Title: "Clerk to Basel - Report for the Year 1889"

Ref. number: D-01.51.VI..101

Date: Proper date: 10.02.1890

Description: He evidently considers that he should feel a joy in his work, which he in fact did not feel during the first half of the year when there were exclusions, and no conversions. In Anum the fact that the community is drawn from 3 different towns creates conflict - and the presbyters are too weak to handle it properly. Boso pleases him - the Presbyters are to be credited with leading the community well. And the fervency of the prayer at Tsate - in broken Twi - during prayer meetings is very impressive. In the Anum school there are difficulties because in most cases the pupils have to spend their first year learning Twi. Also the people - including the elders of the community - do not understand the purpose of the school, and want their children to work with them on their farms.
