"Ramseyer to Müller"

Title: "Ramseyer to Müller"

Ref. number: D-01.67.VII..143

Date: Proper date: 03.03.1897

Description: Detailing the stationing of local agents of the mission posted to Asante. Teacher Mensa - to Kwaso, where he has received a friendly reception. Teacher Isaac Tete to Ahenkurow, though to date he has not been able to set up a school through the absence of the chief. Catechist Kumi to Affidwase - a fine opportunity to work with the nearby towns of Asokore and Oyoko. Catechist Akyea to Dwaso. Teacher Obeng to Nsuta, Catechist Otu, will go to Dwabeng. Ramseyer told Yaw Sarpong that to have a catechist he must be prepared to find 30 pupils. He has also, because of the lack of helpers, and the lateness of their arrival, appointed two Abetifi Christian evangelists - Emm. Agyei and Stefano Abankwa. These people were graduates of the Abetifi school, had shown, signs of inner life, and were in Kumasi in connection with trading. He sent them initially to Nsuta and Dweso, and since the arrival of the proper staff, Hall sent Abankwa to Kwamang, and Agyei either to Bomasi (Boamang?) or Ankaase or Abrodeku.
