Title: "Station Conference Protocol concerning Kibi"

Ref. number: D-01.18a.I..15

Date: Proper date: 23.03.1866

Description: Discussion about the buying free of a servant girl of Chr. Asante in Kibi. He had acquired her because he could get no-one to serve him, and Missionary Mader had suggested that buying someone with the slave emancipation fund would be the best plan. He had bought this particular eight-year old girl because she was a six-fingered child and when the Abompe people had brought her to Kibi, no-one else had wanted to buy her. The price involved was 26 dollars.
