"Buck to Basel"

Title: "Buck to Basel"

Ref. number: D-01.30.XVII..218

Date: Proper date: 25.01.1878

Description: The 'peace' between Okyenhene and Christians was, in detail, a request by Buck to the Okyenhene that for 6 months he be allowed to learn the situation before being made responsible for the deeds and statements of the Christians, and on the other hand the- 'radical step' of warning the Christians that if they were heard insulting the Okyenhene Buck would not do anything to defend them. Asiakwa - purchase negotiations stuck at the local elders wanting 56 dollars for 6 acres, and Buck offering 12. In this town people are not happy that local school pupils do not get the same support as pupils in Kibi. Boakye is achieving things in Abomosu -- he reads and writes Twi and Ga. A journey has just been undertaken through Apinamang, Asaman and Akem Akropong by Cat. Meyer - he reports a warm reception only in Asamang.
