"Buck's Report on the Boarding School"

Title: "Buck's Report on the Boarding School"

Ref. number: D-01.30.XVII..219

Date: Proper date: 23.09.1878

Description: Reports that though after warning the two Akim teachers were more regular with their teaching, their family affairs still take up much too much of their time. Akims should be posted away from Akim. Also they use the stick too much s sometimes beating the whole class, during arithmetic lessons especially. He remarks too that the whole school - with one or two exceptions - is composed of slave boys, and seems rather pessimistic of achieving much with such an intake.
