"D. Huppenbauer's Report for the Second Quarter of 1881"

Title: "D. Huppenbauer's Report for the Second Quarter of 1881"

Ref. number: D-01.33.XIII..216

Date: Proper date: 01.07.1881

Description: The first part of the report is a lament at the lack of local personnel, with acerbic footnotes from J. Müller indicating that the lack is not so severe as depicted. Huppenbauer suggests an Evangelists' School in Kibi - they have 3 young men in mind for this. The later part of the report is mostly about building and travelling difficulties in view of the unusually heavy rains. In a subscript Eisenschmid as General Präses points out that all available personnel had been sent into Akim in previous years. At the end of the current school year there were two graduates from the Seminary available for the Twi district, at the same time Catechist Meyer 'inwardly dead' had left the service of the mission.
