He said that if he met God he would tell him he had had too short a time to repent. Fankyeneko - the Christians are scattered, and the local people say they will not join the church till the house is finished. A Christian woman had been to a priest for help for her sick daughter and was told to stop attending services - the daughter died nevertheless. Anyinam - only a few have lapsed, the others help the teacher build his house, and in street preaching the people understand what Mullings tells them.
