"Mullings' Report on his Work in Kukurantumi and Begoro in 1886"

Title: "Mullings' Report on his Work in Kukurantumi and Begoro in 1886"

Ref. number: D-01.45.IV..65

Date: Proper date: 31.12.1886

Description: He has employed many native doctors in an attempt to cure the sores which his wife has around her neck and Dr. Fisch is unable to help also. He has left her with her parents in Akwapim. In Kukurantumi he had excluded 3 Christians who ha (been rubber collecting in the bush for 7 consecutive Sundays. A child died after falling into the fire. In Mmase there had been no tension between chief and Christians in the first part of the year. In Anyinasin the Christiane were catching fish from a forbidden river. He made a tour from 22nd November to 7th December: En route for Otumi he preached in several villages and was received cheerfully. The main object of the journey was to introduce Eyang. Apeakese to Otumi, but the chief there said he would not have an evangelist residing there. Mullings preached further at Asuum, Abomosu, and Asunafo without incident.
