"Anora's Report on the Anyinam District in 1886"

Title: "Anora's Report on the Anyinam District in 1886"

Ref. number: D-01.45.IV..71

Date: Proper date: 31.12.1886

Description: Describing his community of 37 he writes that some of them are emancipated slaves from Kwahu. But they only stop in Anyinam for two or three years, and then go on 'to the wilderness' (marginal comment by a missionary 'he means the coast') 'to join their fellows; so they are lost to the community. Other Christians are Kwahus. There are only two Anyinam natives in the community. 2 Anyinam people are catechumen, two ex-slaves also, and some children. Of his 8 pupils in the community school, 3 had graduated to the Kibi school. Kwabeng - most of the children of the Christians are not baptised because the mothers are still heathen and will not allow it. Nevertheless there are 15-17 scholars in Khabeng. He is well contented with the people in Asunafo. They work well together. 12-24 children in the community school. Bothin Tumfa and Akropong there were exclusions for adultery.
