"Ofori's Report for 1887"

Title: "Ofori's Report for 1887"

Ref. number: D-01.47.IV..104

Date: Proper date: 23.01.1888

Description: Identifies as a main source of Ata's anger with the Christians that so many of his personal guards had been converted. The Christians of the Kibi district suffered 38 deaths. Ofori explains this as following from the unaccustomed climates in the places to which they fled. When the Christians were taken back to Kibi the other Akim chiefs did not support the Queen Mother in wanting their exclusion from Kibi. He lists his congregations in Kibi, Apapam, Tete, Apedwa, Asafo and Asiakwa.
