"Mohr to Eisenschmid"

Title: "Mohr to Eisenschmid"

Ref. number: D-01.47.IV..68

Date: Proper date: 08.03.1887

Description: It is concerned with administrative details especially in connection with the activities of the local agents. Anoff apparently arrived in Aburi only on 13th February, and has been given a 6 week vacation. The two schools were being carried on in Begoro. Ntom had that day returned to Kukurantumi to reside there, while Botwe had gone to Apedwa to investigate damage. Anoba and Gyamera had returned to Abomосу/Asunafo for the same purpose, Tate and Boabea to Asiakwa similarly, though Boabea will attempt to start work in Tafo again. Labi does not want to go via Tumfa to Aktapim to look after the Akims there. He denies that he had wanted to go to - Accra to get involved in the case over the Akrofi case. Ofori is uncertain whether to take 6 months leave and go to Accra because of the Akrofi case, or go and see what had happened to his things in Kibi. Mohr had told him that if he went to Accra no-one would look out for his things and see what he had lost; he should have stayed at his post and then he would have seen to their protection or seen who had robbed them. They expect the soldiers to go to Kibi in a few days. The rumour that the Abetifi missionaries are beleaguered is now known to be rumour.
