"Begoro Stations Conference"

Title: "Begoro Stations Conference"

Ref. number: D-01.47.IV..74

Date: Proper date: 12.04.1887

Description: Points out the problems involved in holding the Kibi School in Begoro, and asked the Executive Committee (Local Committee) to enquire whether the Governor proposes to instruct the Kibi community to return there or not. They first feel that unless a return is prepared in this way the Kibi community will not return. In the meantime they ask for £15 to build a temporary sleeping room for the 30-35 pupils - at that moment they were all sleeping in two rooms in the lower storey of the mission house.
