"Sitzler's Report on Schools in Akim at the End of the School Year"

Title: "Sitzler's Report on Schools in Akim at the End of the School Year"

Ref. number: D-01.47.IV..81

Date: Proper date: 19.08.1887

Description: Of the six pupils in the senior class in the Kibi school at the beginning of the school year, three had got as far as examination to enter the Middle School. Of the other three one had been taken by his parents to the coast and died, one had gone to the Akropong Boarding School and been kept there on the instructions of his mother's sister who lives there. The third had heathen parents who have only in the past week returned him to the school. They must therefore have a class of three, in the hope that more will follow. No pupils from Abetifi was qualified, though a previous pupil of the Akropong Middle School has arrived and begged to be taken on - the son of heathen parents he has been brought up by an elder brother who is one of the presbyters at Nsakyé.
