"Klaus' Report for the First Quarter of 1865"

Title: "Klaus' Report for the First Quarter of 1865"

Ref. number: D-01.17.VIII..1

Date: Proper date: 10.03.1865

Description: The bulk of this report is published in the 1865 Annual Report, pp 106-109. Additional material: Theft is a major problem - three serious cases have occurred, in one of which they managed to get their things back. Philip Kwabi is totally reliable, and a great help in this kind of problem. Over the incident with the Akropong workers and the attempt to panyarry them, Klaus cites as an example of God's protection the fact that when they eventually decided to leave secretly they were stupid enough to allow this fact to become known one of them even taking public leave of a friend. They still managed to get away safely.
