"Lechler's quarterly report on "The history of the village of the mosques". In his report L. mentions the resettlement of the village, after the inhabitants of the fast growing European settlement Victoria had brought complaints to the governor. On p. 20 he also describes the fate of a "squatter settlement", the squatters being forced to settle elsewhere, their huts having been destroyed by the police. See also No. 26, p. 11."
